mycharge.com Privacy Policy

MyCharge is committed to protecting your privacy and developing technology that will provide you with the most powerful and secure online experience. This Privacy Statement pertains to the mycharge.com.tr website and is directed at data collection and use. By using the mycharge.com.tr website, you consent to the data practices described in this statement.

Collection of Your Personal Information

MyCharge collects personally identifiable information such as your e-mail address, name, home or business address, or telephone number. MyCharge also collects anonymous demographic information that is not unique to you, such as your area code, age, gender, preferences, interests, and likes.

There is also information about your computer hardware and software automatically collected by MyCharge. This information may include your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times, and referring website addresses. This information is used by MyCharge for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the mycharge.com.tr website.

Please keep in mind that if you directly disclose personally identifiable information or personally sensitive data through MyCharge's public message boards, this information may be collected and used by others. Note: mycharge.com.tr does not read any of your private online communications.

MyCharge encourages you to review the privacy statements of websites you choose to link to from mycharge.com.tr so that you can understand how those websites collect, use, and share your information. MyCharge is not responsible for the privacy statements or other content of websites outside of the MyCharge family of websites.

Use of Your Personal Information

MyCharge collects and uses your personal information to operate the website and deliver the services you have requested. MyCharge also uses your personally identifiable information to inform you of other products or services available from MyCharge and its affiliates. MyCharge may also contact you via surveys to conduct research about your opinion of current services or of potential new services that may be offered.

MyCharge does not sell, rent, or lease its customer lists to third parties. MyCharge may, from time to time, contact you on behalf of external business partners about a particular offering that may be of interest to you. In those cases, your unique personally identifiable information (e-mail, name, address, telephone number) is not transferred to the third party. In addition, MyCharge may share data with trusted partners to help perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to MyCharge, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

MyCharge does not use or disclose sensitive personal information, such as race, religion, or political affiliations, without your explicit consent.

MyCharge keeps track of the websites and pages our customers visit within MyCharge in order to determine what MyCharge services are the most popular. This data is used to deliver customized content and advertising within MyCharge to customers whose behavior indicates that they are interested in a particular subject area.

MyCharge websites will disclose your personal information, without notice, only if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on MyCharge or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of MyCharge; and (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of MyCharge or the public.

Use of Cookies

The mycharge.com.tr website uses cookies to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize mycharge.com.tr pages, or register with the mycharge.com.tr site or services, a cookie helps mycharge.com.tr to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same mycharge.com.tr website, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the mycharge.com.tr features that you customized.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the mycharge.com.tr services or websites you visit.

Security of Your Personal Information

MyCharge secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. MyCharge secures the personally identifiable information you provide on computer servers in a controlled, secure environment, protected from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. When personal information (such as a credit card number) is transmitted to other websites, it is protected through the use of encryption, such as the 3D Secure protocol.

Changes to This Statement

MyCharge will occasionally update this Privacy Statement to reflect company and customer feedback. MyCharge encourages you to periodically review this Statement to be informed of how MyCharge is protecting your information.

Contact Information

MyCharge welcomes your comments regarding this Privacy Statement. If you believe that MyCharge has not adhered to this Statement, please contact MyCharge's network administrator. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly determine and remedy the problem.
